HAWTHORNE RACING.

Despite the mediocre card presented to the patrons of Hawthorne yesterday the day's sport was redeemed considerably by some close and exciting finishes, and in several cases none but the judges were in a position to place the first three past the wire. In the fifth race four of the field finished in very close order, the judges placing Thurles first, but the usual crowd of dissenters congregated about the stand and shouted for Lake View Belle. It was a close decision, but the right number was certainly placed first. The angle at Hawthorne is still very deceptive, and unless a man is on a direct line with the wire he is in no position to say what horse finishes first in a hair-line finish. None but the most foolish spectators congregate about the judges' stand and dispute boisterously the bulletining of the first three horses. When numbers are put up they are there to remain, and all the ill-advised exceptions taken by unthinking spectators are a waste of mere words.

The most pretentious affair yesterday was the fourth race, a free handicap purse of $700, at six furlongs for two-year-olds. Sidney C. Love was made first choice by the talent, opening at 7 to 5 and receding to 9 to 5 by post time. He ran a fair race, but had to succumb to Au Revoir, held at 4 to 1 in the betting. To a good start Coburn was the quickest to get his mount, Au Revoir, in motion, and before a sixteenth had been run he had a lead of one and a half lengths over Sidney C. Love, on which Lady Jocelyn was lapped. Au Revoir, running well within himself the entire distance, displayed much speed, and at no time of the dash was he ever in danger of being headed. He won easily by two lengths. The struggle for second place between Sidney C. Love and Lady Jocelyn lasted all through the final quarter, the two disputing every foot of the distance. The former outstayed the latter, getting the verdict by a short head. Lady Jocelyn displayed much gameness under a grueling ride. Gold Bell, badly outrun in the first half, closed up ground fast in the last quarter and finished with a rush. Rheta tired slightly in the last sixteenth. Topsoil was always thoroughly beaten and showed scant speed. He probably needs a soft or heavy track to run to his best form.

An unwieldy bunch of fifteen maidens faced the barrier in the day's opener, a six and a half furlongs dash for maiden three-year-olds. Starter Holtman got them off in perfect alignment. Ran After darted to the front at once and held command until the head of the stretch had been reached, where Bissett, which had always lain well up, moved up fast and passed into the lead, winning in a big canter by ten lengths. Leneta finished second a length before Ran After. Bissett simply played with the field and could have won among higher class horses. Wild Oats, backed generously for a "good thing," ran an impressive race. He was trailing back of the field while going down the backstretch, but after the first half had been run began to pick up ground rapidly, finishing with a great rush in the closing strides. Trust Deed showed a flash of early speed.

Headwater finally ran to his best form and made the field look cheap in the second race, a dash of six and a half furlongs for three-year-olds and upward. To an excellent start he at once showed a pair of heels to the other three starters and, displaying keen speed for the entire distance, won as his rider pleased by three and a half lengths. Zyra finished second, a half length before Scintillant II., on which Gonfalon was lapped. Zyra stood a long drive through the last quarter without flinching. Scintillant II. began slowly, but picked up ground rapidly in the last quarter, and under a vigorous ride finished with resolution next to the inside rail. Gonfalon faltered when the hard drive came. Floearline, heavily backed in the third race, a dash of six furlongs, proved to be an easy winner, assuming an immediate command at flag fall and maintaining it without much trouble to the end. She won easily by three lengths from Whiten, which outstayed Lampoon in the last eighth struggle and beat her to the wire by a neck. Pericles put up a dull performance, but probably needs a soft or heavy track to show at his best. Pennant showed early speed and bears watching. Prince of Endurance appears to have trained off entirely.

Thurles, displaying sudden improvement over his last effort, took the fifth race, a dash of one mile and seventy yards, by a head from Lake View Belle, which beat Reseda a half length for second place. The last named beat Leviathan a nose for third place. Thurles, always well up, finished determinedly under a hard drive and wore down Lake View Belle in the closing strides. The latter ran to her best form, was ridden faultlessly and had no mishaps. Reseda swerved slightly under punishment in the last sixteenth and was slightly cut off by Leviathan at the end. Birdie D. ran well for a half mile only.

The last race of the day resulted in a victory for Hayward Hunter, which won in hollow fashion. The race was a dash of one and a half miles for three-year-olds and upward. Hayward Hunter allowed Emathion and Leo Newell to alternate in the lead for the first six furlongs, where he went to the front without much trouble and simply ran away from the field, winning well in hand by three lengths from Leo Newell, which finished a head before Edith Q., on which Lady Chorister was lapped. Leo Newell appeared to be badly beaten when a furlong from home, but rallied in the last fifty yards and finished with a display of speed. Edith Q. was coming stoutly at the end. Lady Chorister hardly ran her race, but even at that was probably unable to concede the weight.

The usual large crowd was present and witnessed a good day's sport. The track was at its best. The no-recall flag system worked smoothly and there was little, if any, delay at the post.

HARLEM'S PROGRAM.

The program book for the first week of the second summer meeting of the Harlem Jockey Club is out and it seems likely to furnish plenty of good racing for the first half of September.

Harlem will reopen its gates on Monday next, which is Labor Day, and the popular holiday will be celebrated by running the Twentieth Century Handicap, Harlem's $8,000 race, which arouses as much interest as any of the big handicaps in the west, with the possible exception of the Young and Wheeler. This year it has 100 entries, and, as practically all the best handicap horses at a middle distance are entered, there should be little doubt about a large field of high class running for this rich prize. The weights will be given out by Secretary Nathanson this afternoon.

During the week two other stakes are to be run. They are the Sapling, worth $2,000, for two-year-olds and upward at a half mile, and the Oak Park Handicap for three-year-olds at a mile and a furlong, worth $3,500. The Sapling Stakes will be run on Thursday of next week and the Oak Park Handicap on Saturday. Three steeplechases of $500 each will be carded for Monday, Wednesday and Friday.

Attention is called in the book to an announcement that racing will commence at 2:15 daily, and not at 2 o'clock; also to the fact that with September 1 comes a change in the sex allowance for fillies and mares, the five pounds of the summer being cut down to three.

An innovation on the program is a race for maiden jockeys and another for maiden steeplechasers.

The dates for the four stakes to be run at the autumn meeting of seven days also are given in the book. They are September 29, for the Forward Stakes; October 1 for the Prairie State Stakes; October 4 for the Tecumseh Handicap, and October 6, the last day at Harlem Park this year, for the Chicago Stakes, which will be worth at least $3,500.

Winner—Ch. c. by Golden Garter—Julia L. (trained by W. C. Smith).
Went to post at 2:15. At post 4 minutes. Start bad. Won driving; second easily. Stevedore, away running and lucky throughout, just lasted out to beat Van Ness. The latter was pocketed early and compelled to race wide on the turn, but finished strongly. The Pride of Surrey was reserved and nursed carefully throughout for third place. Biserta is improving and finished strongly. Feme Sole, away badly, made up much ground and finished strongly. Tribes Hill, a slow beginner, was going well at the end and can do much better. Filiform, interfered with at the start, closed a big gap and is worth remembering.
Scratched—34509 Hans Wagner, 107; 34579 Mary Worth, 106; 34555 Eddie Busch, 106; 34340 Valley Forge, 105; 34365 Joy Maker, 103; 32940 Lieschen, 103; 34555 May J. 96.

Winner—B. g. by Salvator—Lydia (trained by M. J. Maloney).
Went to post at 2:45. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Sallust may have been best. He fenced poorly, but showed plenty of speed on the flat. Inaction characterized the behavior of those behind him. Inkerman swerved all over the course and was a dangerous and disturbing factor throughout. Headland tired after making the pace for the first mile on sufferance. Victor went hopelessly wide on the turns and was generally messed about, receiving a losing ride, and when going very strongly his jockey conveniently fell off at the Liverpool.
Scratched—(34459) Inspector Stevens, 188; 34531 Filon d'Or, 150.
Sallust, show, 1 to 4. Inkerman, show, evens. Headland, show, 4 to 5. Victor, show, 7 to 10. Galahad, show, 3 to 5.

Winner—Gr. g. by St. George—Una B. (trained by W. P. Burch).
Went to post at 3:15. At post 6 minutes. Start straggling. Won easily; second the same. Grey Friar was best, received a lucky start and powerful ride, draw to the front on the turn and won going away. Eugenia Burch finished with a rush and ran a grand race. Merry Acrobat, outrun from a flat-footed start, went around the field and finished fast, but favors soft going. Counterpoise was easily third best and is a probable good one, but was not ridden well. Sailmaker favors soft going, got away flatfooted, closed a big gap and finished like a whirlwind. Grantsdale had no chance with his start or rider. Bounding Beauty went a fast half. Scoffer, away badly, can do better.
Scratched—34506 Bellgardo, 106; 34339 Tantalus Cup, 105; 33989 Kentucky Rose, 102.
Grey Friar, show, 2 to 5. Eugenia Burch, show, evens. Merry Acrobat, show, evens.

Winner—Ch. c. by Star Ruby—La Toquera (trained by G. B. Morris).
Went to post at 3:50. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Sombbrero, under a choking pull, went to the front on the backstretch and in effect cantered the remainder of the journey. Baron Pepper fell out of the race on the backstretch, allowing the winner to steal a long lead and came with a belated rush at the end and was probably best. He had no chance with the ride, which looked very bad, and pulled up lame. Cogswell outstayed Douro at the end. The latter tired after a hard effort to beat Sombbrero. Latson was well up for seven furlongs.
Scratched—34533 Andy Williams, 114; 34558 The Amazon, 99.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

The first big two-year-old race of this season in France was won by Heart of Oak, a son of Sorcerer. Sorcerer is now at Milton Young's McGrathiana Stud and his foals are extremely promising.

F., Memphis, Tenn. Lizella was even money to show.

L. M. & Co., Little Rock, Ark. There may have been place odds where Erema was even money, but we only get post odds and cannot say positively.

Levy, Chicago. Zibia and Gregor K. each won at 200 to 1, and were the longest shots of the local season.

SENATOR O'BRIEN SUSPENDED.

SARATOGA, N. Y., August 27.—Senator J. S. O'Brien was suspended today for the remainder of the meeting and his case referred to the Jockey Club. This action was taken immediately after the last race of the day which was won by the senator's Hans Wagner. The horse cut up so badly while parading in front of the stand that the jockey was compelled to dismount and lead him to the post. It is thought that the colt's condition and crazy behavior and subsequent improved running in the race induced the stewards to take this remarkably severe and unheard of action on the supposition that the horse had been "doped." It was learned that the owner's wagers were very modest in comparison with his regular losing investments on the animal and the majority of the layers had clean sheets after the race, with the closing odds undisturbed at 20 and 30 to 1.

Sombrero's performance today from a time standpoint was the best ever shown over an eastern track and at the weight probably overshadowed that of Goodrich, which ran the mile and a half at Washington Park in 2:30, the American record for the distance.

L. V. Bell lost a fortune in wagers on the runner-up, Baron Pepper, and the majority of horsemen thought he should have won. But an inexplicable and astoundingly bad ride again beat this unlucky horse.

A Featherstone has determined to have his colors represented in the Futurity and consequently O'Connor is compelled to ride the forlorn Mesmer instead of the probable favorite, Acefull.

It is reported that the great western colt, High Chancellor, is very sick and was left behind when J. A. Drake's string was shipped to Sheephead Bay yesterday.

FLEETWOOD WEIGHTS.

Secretary Sheridan Clark announced the weights allotted the horses in the Fleetwood Handicap yesterday. It is a six furlongs scramble for all ages and has all the sprinters in. It will be the star feature next Saturday and should be contested by a big field. The weights are as follows:

Dead heat; purse divided. Time, 11%, 23%, 47%, 1:00%, 1:07%.

Winners—Bright Girl, b. f. by Golden Dawn—The Truant (trained by J. Frayling). Virgin Soil, b. f. by Top Gallant—Alfalfa (trained by E. Graves).

Went to post at 4:15. At post 5 minutes. Start bad. Won in a hard drive; second easily. Bright Girl, away running, held her advantage with remarkable gameness and was probably best. Virgin Soil tired at the end and lacked her usual speed, but hung on gamely. Bellardo was prominent throughout and stayed well and is greatly improved. Pan Zagloba made up much ground. Embarrassment closed a big gap. Captivator showed a fine burst of early speed.

Scratched—34390 Old Fort, 112; 32892 Jake Greenberg, 112.

Bright Girl, show, 2 to 1. Virgin Soil, show, 1 to 4. Bellardo, show, 3 to 1. Sweet Alice, show, 7 to 10.

Winner—B. c. by Longstreet—Tommie Bell (trained by J. Burns).

Went to post at 4:45. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second easily. Hans Wagner was a wild horse today. Away running, he held sway throughout and finished strongly. G. Whittier ran in improved form under a skillful ride, but was unable to concede the weight. Bessie McCarthy was badly interfered with in the last fifty yards and wants a longer race. She was a good horse badly handled. Loone was closing up strong at the end. Mosketo was always outrun.

Scratched—(34608) Stevedore, 106; 34434 Lone Fisherman, 106; 34555 May J., 95.

Whiten finished strongly and outstayed Lampoon in the last seventy-five yards struggle. Lampoon met with early interference, but when once she got clear sailing made up ground fast. Pericles was well beaten when a furlong out. He probably runs best in soft going. Penant showed early speed and bears watching from now on. The Phantom, as usual, ran out at the head of the stretch.

Went to post at 4:00. Off at once. Won driving to the limit; second the same. Thurles stood a long stretch drive with gameness and under a vigorous ride outstayed Lake View Belle in the closing strides. The latter showed much speed, but tired just a trifle when the deciding drive came. Reseda was under a hard drive through the last quarter and just got up in time to nip Leviathan on the post for third place. Leviathan was well spent in the last hundred yards. Birdie D. ran well for a half mile only.

Hayward Hunter was much the best and made the field look cheap, coming away without much trouble after the first seven furlongs had been run. Leo Newell faltered at the last eighth post and then rallied finishing strongly. Edith Q. was ridden with poor judgment, but finished resolutely. Lady Chorister came fast in the last sixteenth. Time, 25.49, 1:17, 1:30. Winner—Br. m. by Inspector B.—Carrie A. (trained by J. Dymont). Went to post at 3:21. At post 4 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second the same. Carrie I. was best. She, Vituria and Insole were out off at the start, but she caught H. S. Tobacco on the far turn, raced him into submission and had enough left to stall off Junaetta. The latter ran in much improved form, came with a rush in the stretch and was pressing the winner hard at the end. Mr. Clay ran a good race and hung on gamely all the way. Concertina showed but little speed and had no mishaps. Easy Street ran a good race, met with interference all the way and finished strongly when clear. Scratched—34179 Princess Otilie, 102. Overweights—Easy Street, 2 pounds; Concertina, 3. Carrie I., show, 1 to 2. Junaetta, show, 2 to 1. Mr. Clay, show, 3 to 1. Easy Street, show, out. Concertina, show, 4 to 5.

Velma Clark showed the most speed throughout and was never fully extended. Annie Thompson was well in motion at the start, but seemed to prop and did not get fully in her stride until on the stretch turn. She tried to run out on both turns. Johnson was of no assistance to Annie Lauretta when it came to a drive with Annie Thompson. Candling and Andes were cut off and thrown out of it just after the start. Cad Hazel showed early speed, but could not keep it up. Scratched—34200 Fairy Dell, 97. Velma Clark, show, 4 to 5. Annie Thompson, show, 2 to 1. Annie Lauretta, show, 6 to 5. Cad Hazel, show, out. Imperialist came away after taking the last jump, won as his rider pleased and was beautifully handled. Pretty Rosie ran a great race and was much the best of the others. He lost his rider in attempting a jump before the start and ran away about two miles through the field. Sir Ellerslie trailed his field until near the last two obstacles. He passed Urganda when the latter struck the seventh jump. Boojum refused the first jump and ran out of the course. Scratched—34571 McManus, 142; 34402 Brandywine, 125. No show betting.

Obstinate Simon trailed his field for the first six furlongs, moved up to Handcuff on the far turn and after racing him into submission came away with something in reserve. Cast Iron finished strongly and caught Handcuff tiring in the last furlong. The latter was worn out setting the pace and faltered in the closing strides. GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

Discussing the Saratoga meeting, which ends today, August Belmont a day or so ago said: "We have not seen crowds of higher quality around New York even in the last ten years. The steadiness and strength of the attendance has been a great surprise to me. I hardly thought it possible that so many people interested in racing could be attracted to Saratoga. These big crowds are a flattering tribute to the men who have managed the meeting. I am convinced that the Saratoga plant is destined to become one of the most valuable racing properties in the United States. It will grow in value year by year. Saratoga is already a most attractive place for a race meeting, but it will be more and more attractive as Mr. Whitney and his associates carry forward the plans of improvement they have under consideration. There is no fear that any of their plans may fall through. They are the most energetic and enterprising men in the sport and do not know how to fail. The racing this year has been brisk and interesting and commendably free from scandal. There has been some complaint as to rough riding, but nothing more serious. Our metropolitan associations will have to bestir themselves to keep up at the pace Saratoga has cut out. We shall be well satisfied at Morris Park if we hold our own."

One of the most important deals in thoroughbred horses which has been made in Kentucky for years has just been conducted by Nat W. Halstead as executor for S. P. Lancaster, deceased, selling to Ben Johnson six of the highest bred mares and several foals by their sides that can be found in the United States.

The mares sold to Mr. Johnson are: Zuma, the dam of five stake winners, including Marion C., which beat Kingston at Chicago.

Linnie, by Macduff—Linnie Lewis, by Oliver, she out of the celebrated Sallie Lewis, by Glencoe. Linnie has made herself famous by throwing Cleophas and two other stake winners.

Linnetzin, by Harry O'Fallon—Linnie. This is a young mare, but her foals are promising indeed.

Included in the lot is the great Cleophas herself, which started forty-five times in her two and three-year-old form, finishing first twenty-five times, second eleven, and third nine times, winning nearly $50,000. This mare is 16½ hands high, deep through the heart, with big barrel and wide hips, and is pronounced by experts to be the most perfectly built brood mare in the country.

In the lot is also a three-year-old untried filly by St. Julien—Linnetzin, which is said to have worked a half mile recently in 47 seconds with a heavy stable boy up.

The foals now with the mares are by Top Gallant and the mares are again with foal to him. These mares are the most direct descendants living of the great brood mare Sallie Lewis, which is conceded by all horsemen to be a great brood mare.

Sam P. Lancaster spent fifty years of his life building up a first class thoroughbred family, and the mares purchased by Mr. Johnson are the best results of his efforts. The exact price paid has not been given out, but it is known to be many thousands of dollars.—The Thoroughbred Record.

All of the horses, except two, that were recently disposed of at the Mackay and Bennington sales, have been victorious. Kilogram has won three straight races for L. Waterbury; Mary McCafferty has taken one for Mason & Burlew; C. R. Ellison's Skilful captured the United States Hotel Stakes; Aceful carried J. E. Madden's colors to the front the other day, and Lady Albercraft won the Kentucky Stakes for L. V. Bell, who, judging from the odds, did not bet heavily on the filly.

J. E. Madden has registered with the Messrs. Weatherly the names of his yearlings that are engaged in various English stakes in 1903 and 1904, as follows:

St. Valentine II., b. c. by Himyar—Bracelet. Abdell, b. c. by Plaudit—Nahma. Panique, b. c. by Plaudit—Setfast. Alliance II., b. c. by Isidor—Greenwich. Dimple II., b. f. by Mirthful—Myrtle Harkness. Raglan II., b. f. by Plaudit—Royal Gun. Applause III., b. f. by Plaudit—Pearl Thorn. Lumax, ch. f. by Mirthful—Llandrinio.

The Kentucky Association track at Lexington, the oldest race course in America, will soon pass into the hands of J. B. Haggin, the millionaire breeder and turfman. Mr. Haggin's agents surveyed the place Monday, and Charles Green's attorney has put the place in shape for the transfer. Mr. Green was in Cincinnati a few days ago and met an agent of Haggin's, and the deal closed. Just what Mr. Haggin will do with the track is a matter of guesswork. Some believe he will use it as a private training ground for his big stable, while others think he may emulate William C. Whitney's example and revive racing at Lexington as Whitney has done at Saratoga. His agents decline to discuss the matter. The consideration is not known, but Green has been holding out for $45,000.

While Advance Guard has been beaten repeatedly in handicaps in which he has been called upon to make prodigious concessions to animals of greater speed, he has more than held his own in the weight-for-age races. He has started in four of them and won three—the Jockey Club weight-for-age race, one mile and a quarter, at Morris Park; the Standard, one mile and a half, at Gravesend, and the Saratoga Cup, one mile and three-quarters, at Saratoga. He was beaten by Gold Heels in the Advance at Sheepshead Bay, but did not start against the stout little son of The Bard—Heel and Toe in the Brighton Cup, two miles and a quarter, at the Beach. If he had he would no doubt have wiped out the Advance score. Gold Heels fell lame in the Cup nearly a quarter of a mile from the finish. No lame horse could beat Advance Guard this year, even if he had the whirlwind speed of Salvator and the unfaltering courage of Luke Blackburn.

Concerning the formidable horses composing the McLewee & Brady string, Morning Telegraph of Tuesday says:

"Major Daingerfield is receiving a special preparation for the $15,000 Century Stakes, one mile and a half, and $25,000 Champion Stakes, two miles and a quarter, run at Sheepshead Bay on September 6 and 13, respectively. Luck and Charity, by Hanover—Bonita Belle, is also one of the McLewee & Brady candidates for these races, but, like Gold Heels, this colt will not be raced this fall.

"In the Century and Champion Stakes Major Daingerfield may meet Prince of Melbourne, Tom Kenny, Blues, Douro, Maid of Harlem, Zoroaster, and perhaps the Keene four-year-old, Disguise II., to say nothing of Hyphen, Cunard, Gold Cure, Old England and others of his own age. At 115 pounds in the shorter race and 112 in the longer, Major Daingerfield looks to have chances second to none. He is just at present doing all his trainer has required, a mile and a half in 2:40 being the fastest he has been asked thus far.

"Hindred, the Hanover—Mildred three-year-old, will also be started for the McLewee colors at Sheepshead. While for two-year-olds the stable will rely on the full sister to Gold Heels, the filly Rosalind; Anne Hathaway, which is a full sister to The Rhymor, and Prince of Arragon, by The Bard—Northminster.

"These three two-year-olds by The Bard are promising youngsters, and McLewee & Brady may purchase the entire crop of yearlings by The Bard now at Chesterbrook, Pa., nine in number. They have an option on the bunch. A year ago McLewee & Brady purchased all the yearlings by The Bard, eleven in number, and have had no reason to regret the transaction."

HORSES AT GRAVESEND.

A number of Saratoga stables reached Gravesend Saturday night and Sunday, and the Brooklyn track is once more assuming an air of business.

Among the first arrivals was the stable of J. G. Follansbee, with Astarita, Daisy Green, Double
